

Applied Music Fee Policy (2016-17)

- No applied lesson fee for Music 11, 12, 21, 22, 31, 32, 41, 4--

These “free” lessons will be limited to one .25-unit course per semester. Students who enroll in more than .25 unit (half hour) of lessons will be assessed a $120 fee for every extra .25 unit. This fee will apply when a student takes lessons on an additional instrument or voice and/or enrolls in .5 unit (hour) lessons.

Exception:

The $120 fee for the extra .25 unit will be waived for applied music majors’ primary lessons, because they are required to take .5 unit on their instrument/voice.

- An applied lesson fee of $120 for Music 10

Exception:

Music majors will be exempt from this fee when they are taking piano lessons to prepare for their piano proficiency exam.
