I'll Be On My Way

When I am gone, don't you cry for me, don't you pity my sorry soul. What pain there might have been will now be past and my spirit will be whole. I'll be on my way, I'll have left my feet of clay upon the ground, I will be glory bound, I'll be on my way. When I am gone, please forgive the wrongs that I might have done to you; There'll be no room for regrets up there, high above, way beyond the blue. I'll be on my way, I'll have laid down my frown and all my burdens down, I'll be puttin' on my crown, I'll be on my way. When I am gone, don't you look for me in the places I have been; I'll be alive, but somewhere else, I'll be on my way again! I'll be on my way! I will lift my wings and soar into the air, there'll be glory ev'rywhere, I'll be on my way!

You Do Not Walk Alone
A Traditional Irish Blessing

May you see God's light on the path ahead when the road you walk is dark. May you always hear, even in your hour of sorrow, the gentle singing of the lark. When times are hard may hardness never turn your heart to stone. May you always remember when the shadows fall, you do not walk alone.

Deep Peace
A Gaelic Blessing

*Deep peace of the running wave to you.
Deep peace of the flowing air to you.
Deep peace of the quiet earth to you.
Deep peace of the shining stars to you.
Deep peace of the gentle night to you.
Moon and stars pour their healing light on you.
Deep peace of Christ, the light of the world to you.*

O My Luv'e's Like a Red, Red Rose
Robert Burns

*O my Luv'e's like a red, red rose
That's newly sprung in June;
O my Luv'e's like the melody
That's sweetly played in tune.*

*As fair art thou, my bonnie lass,
So deep in luv'e am I;
And I will luv'e thee still, my dear,
Till a' the seas gang dry.*

*I will love thee still, my dear,
While the sands o' life shall run.
Till the seas gang dry, my dear,
And rocks melt with the sun.*

*As fair art thou, my bonnie lass,
So deep in luv'e am I;
And I will luv'e thee still, my dear,
Though it were ten thousand mile.*
