

PRE-LAW

TRANSYLVANIA
UNIVERSITY

PRE-LAW:

The personal attention and assistance provided by the Transylvania faculty will give you an invaluable edge in the highly competitive law school application process.

Pre-law students can choose any major that interests them, as long as it is rigorous enough to help them develop good intellectual work habits and in-depth knowledge of a subject that interests them. Students are also encouraged to take courses that will enrich their understanding of law in society, such as political science courses focusing on the U.S. legal system and the development of the Constitution, philosophy courses that discuss ethics and communication courses.

Pre-law students receive one-on-one guidance as they prepare to take the LSAT and complete their applications for law school. Every Transylvania student we recommend to law school is accepted.
