

Palmer Gene Vance II

Gene Vance is an attorney and a Member in the Lexington, KY office of Stoll Keenon Ogden PLLC. His practice focuses primarily on products liability and business/commercial litigation and he has been recognized for many years by Best Lawyers, Super Lawyers and other rating organizations in the legal profession. He received a B.A. from Transylvania University in 1987 and a J.D. from the University of Kentucky College of Law in 1990. Long active in various bar organizations, he is a former Chair of the American Bar Association Section of Litigation. He has chaired several other ABA committees and has served in the ABA's House of Delegates since 1981. He is a former President of the Fayette County Bar Association and serves as Treasurer of the Board of Directors for Legal Aid of the Bluegrass. His other community service includes his current position on the Transylvania Board of Trustees, as well as prior service on the Board of Regents. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the American Bar Endowment and has served as President of the Omicron Delta Kappa Foundation. He has served on both the Grand Council and the Foundation Board for Delta Sigma Phi Fraternity and is the recipient of the Fraternity's highest award.