

RAYMOND K. COOPER, II

Randy as he is known, was raised in Cincinnati, Ohio. He received his Bachelors of Arts degree in English from Transylvania University in 1977 with continued studies at Xavier University and The University of Cincinnati. In 1987 he obtained his real estate brokerage license from the State of Ohio.

Upon graduation from college he joined The Myers Y. Cooper Company. While working at The Cooper Company, he accepted an assignment as Treasurer of Standard Castings overseeing its financial operations and ultimate sale. Since 1987 he has served as President of The Myers Y. Cooper Company. He has served on private corporate boards including Cincinnati Schroder, Inc., The Hyde Park Lumber Company and The Mills Judy Company.

His real estate developments include numerous CVS drug stores in Cincinnati and Atlanta, GA. regional development for PetSuite boarding facilities and Point Blank Range and Gun shops. Shopping Center developments include; Mason Square, Montgomery Square, Mulberry Square, Wooster at Walton Creek, Springdale Town Center in Cincinnati and Florence Shops in Northern Kentucky. Other commercial developments include Red Bank office warehouse, Sycamore Executive Center and Eastgate medical office building.

Civic and community activities include: Board member of The Cincinnati Country Club, and Clermont County Chamber of Commerce, The Springer School and Center as well as Trustee, Transylvania University, Lexington Kentucky. Past activities have included: leadership positions with the Cincinnati Squash Academy, The Ohioana Library Association, Columbus Ohio; Clean Cincinnati and the Cincinnati Art Museum Volunteer Advisory Council.

He is a member of the University Club of Cincinnati and The Cincinnati Country Club. Professional affiliations include: National Association of Realtors, Cincinnati Board of Realtors and International Council of Shopping Centers.