

Sherry D. Holley
President, Gratz Park Private Wealth

Working within wealth management for nearly 30 years, Sherry has garnished extensive recognition for her contributions and leadership as a Senior Wealth Advisor. To say Sherry is involved in the community is an understatement. As an active member of the Jessamine County 100 Women Who Care, sponsor of the Harstad Fine Arts Series, and contributor to The Way Home Rescue Alliance for Animals, Sherry strives to make a difference in lives. Currently, Sherry serves as a board member for the American Red Cross – Bluegrass Region. She was actively involved with a campaign to provide a children's waiting area at its local American Red Cross office for families dealing with crises and tragedies.

Sherry is a proud resident of Lexington since 1980 and earned her BA in Business Management from Transylvania University, where she is a member of the Board of Trustees and the Pioneer Advisory Council. She was inducted into the Transylvania Athletic Hall of Fame in 2002. She also graduated from the Wealth Planning Essentials Program of Wharton Business School in 2016 and the Securities Industry Institute at the Wharton Business School in 2017.
